Show Co-chairs: Virginia Schaffer
and Robert Doyle

Judges: Paul Gould, Pamela Reese
and Trudy Walter

Paul Gould is a professional artist and art conservator residing in Cornwall, NY. He is also the owner of the Hudson Valley Gallery in Cornwall-on-Hudson, NY, where he gives art instruction year round in all media. He has taught plein air workshops in the Hudson Valley, New England and Jackson Hole, WY. He has also given numerous workshops in Ireland, France, Italy and Portugal and more recently on the Princess Cruise Lines travelling along the New England and Canadian coastlines. He has given many art courses at Mount Saint Mary College in Newburgh, NY. He is a past president of the Kent Art Association and is currently an associate member of both the Rockport Art Association, Rockport, MA and the North Shore Art Association in Gloucester, MA. Because of his more than 50 years of art experience, he is frequently asked to judge a variety of art shows and competitions.

Trudy Walter was drawn to art from the time she was a child. Though she did not study art formally, her time at Riverbend Arts Center in Dayton, Ohio in the '90's helped her to grow as an artist. There she became a dedicated student of Nita Leland, a nationally known author and teacher. She also attended workshops and other classes to continue her artistic journey.

Trudy has worked in a variety of media: oils, watercolor, pen and ink and collage. She was a member of the plein air group "The Traveling Brushes" in Ohio and several art associations. She moved to Amenia, NY about 10 years ago and soon after joined Kent Art Association which she enjoys very much.

Pamela Reese: "Art is my passion, it portrays my emotions and love of nature. I continuously delight in painting landscapes to retreat to or ramble-scapes, whether New York City cobblestones, country lanes, or sheep paths which depict my desire to hit the road for new vistas."

Pamela Reese is a founding member of High Street Painters in Brattleboro, Vermont - a group of dedicated member and invited New England artists meeting a few times a month with a model.

Reese has a BFA in painting. She has been an architectural illustrator for over 35 years, having also studied graphic design and architecture. She enjoys painting en plein air and recently participated in Eric Rhoads' Publisher's Invitational Adirondacks Plein Air Event. She has also painted in Plein Air events in New Jersey, Maryland, Massachusetts and CT.

Pamela's work has been included in shows at the Salmagundi Club, NYC; National Arts Club, NYC; Slater Museum, Norwich, Ct, & Mattatuck Museum, Waterbury with CPS' National Renaissance Pastel Exhibitions, among many others. She has been honored with many awards for her work.
