JUDGES

TIM GOOD

After moving from England in the mid 1990's, Tim built a successful business in the art licensing arena for two decades turning his attention to the fine arts, starting his first gallery in 2001. For over 20 years, Tim has slowly honed and built a reputation for having a keen eye for good art and good talent. Over the years he has worked with the Lady Diana Spencer brand.

With his passion for fine art, Tim's space, the Good Gallery has built a reputation across the USA and England. Within the last three years, he has also added an art framing service.

MICHAEL SPROSS

Michael D. Spross's paintings have graced numerous shows at the Kent Art Association over the years and has won several Awards of Excellence. He's also exhibited in venues around Millbrook, New York and was a featured artist at the Maplebrook School's Annual Art Exhibition.

Michael earned a Masters of Arts from SUNY, New Paltz and has been a teacher of the arts from 1983 until his retirement.

"I now have enjoyed some time to explore where I hope my painting will take me; continuing to work, as much as possible, showing and selling locally and always attempting to speak through my work. It is more a journey than a destination.

Hopefully, my love of the natural and efforts to portray 'Honesty in Nature' are even more apparent in recent work, and are capable of grabbing the public's attention long enough to slow them down to enjoy it's beauty and importance and to contemplate the tragedy in its' loss."
