

Wednesday's in August Watercolor Classes with Trisha Haulenbeek

Enhance your creativity while having fun! Learn nature, flower and landscape painting in a wet on wet, free and loose style with watercolorist and art instructor, Trisha Sloday Haulenbeek. The Watercolor classes are on the four "Wednesday's in August" from 10 am -12 pm at the Kent Art Association Gallery in Kent, CT.

Ms. Haulenbeek is from Northfield, CT, and has exhibited her paintings and won awards throughout New England, She is noted for her impressionistic watercolors. Most recently she won the Richard Ochs Memorial Award for Watercolor for her painting "Fleurs Flourissanstis" at the Kent Art Association's prestigious Presidents Show. She is also a well-known and respected art instructor focusing primarily on the wet on wet technique of watercolor painting.

Classes will consist of short demonstrations; and then Ms. Haulenbeek will work with individuals to help them develop their own style and creativity. Students will paint primarily from pictures, photos and cut flower arrangements and may go outdoors to paint, depending on the weather. Artists should bring their own supplies A supply list is available on the Kent Art Association website along with a registration form

The cost for the four "Wednesday's in August" (7th, 14th, 21st & 28th) is $200. Classes are from 10 am -12 pm and must be prepaid. In case a class has to be canceled there will be one make up class on the first Wednesday in September (4th). You can download a registration form and materials list from our website and checks should have "Wednesday's in August" in the memo line. Classes meet at the Kent Art Association Gallery located at 21 So. Main St. Kent, CT. Our mailing address is KAA, PO Box 202, Kent, CT 06757
