

The Womens' Show!

The March show celebrating Women's History Month and featuring 5 local Ct women artists is open and not to be missed! The opening reception last Friday evening attracted well over 100 visitors and was a fun event! Special thanks to Nancy Rohr and her crew who catered the event and to Gino and Jackie Zenobia for putting together this exciting show!

Coffee Talk!

Join us on Saturday, March 12th at 10:00 for a discussion on a timeline in art and history by past KAA President, Connie Horton!

It should be a fascinating morning. We hope you can come by.

A Note From Our Board

KAA is a non-profit volunteer organization established in 1923 to support and promote member artists.

Your participation is what makes us a vibrant and strong network organization and is greatly needed!

What you can do to support KAA:

- Attend show openings, talks and workshops
- Volunteer to paint a mural for the porch mural project
- Enter one or more of the upcoming juried and member shows
- Volunteer to help set up for one of our shows
- Volunteer your maintenance skills for our building
- Consider a donation or sponsorship for one of our show prizes
- Help with social media, outreach
- Help with greeting guests as a gallery sitter for an afternoon
- Offer new ideas or suggestions and help carry them out

We hope to see you at KAA soon!
